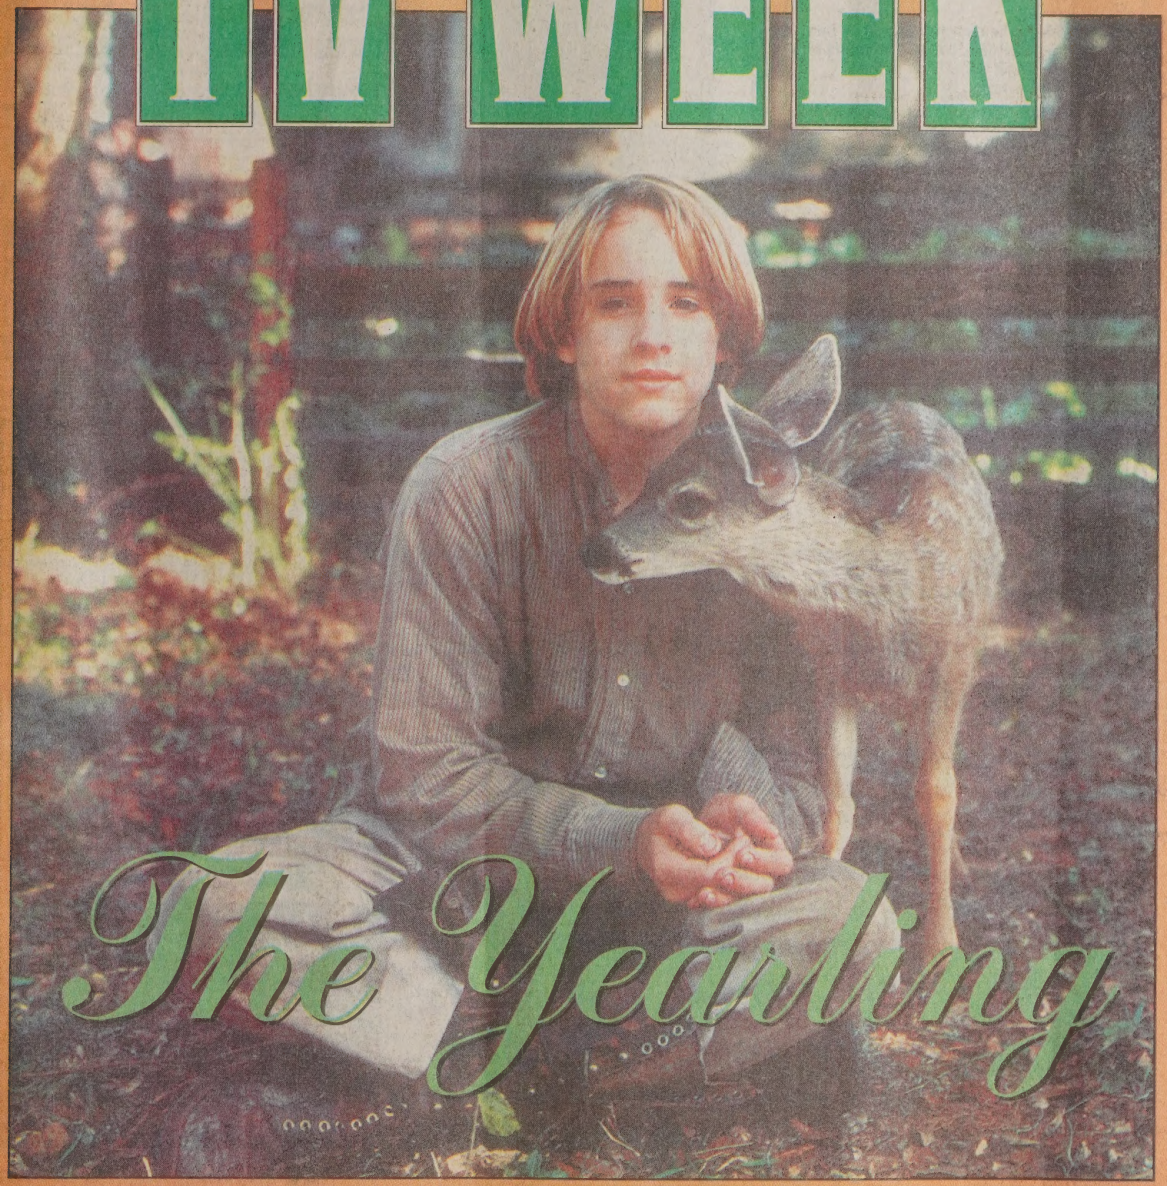
TV WEEK



The Yearling

HOW TO USE TV WEEK

Different cable systems offer different channels, and offer them at different places on the dial. This book will help you find your favorite show no matter where you live.

► CHANNELS: The next page shows which channels are available on most cable systems in this area, and what number they're on.

► LISTINGS: In the daily listings, you'll find not only the channels, but also the number that each channel appears on in the biggest cable systems.

► PRIME TIME: Each day's listings are in easy-to-use charts: one for the morning, one for the afternoon, one for late night and two for prime time: separate listings for broadcast channels and for cable channels.

► MOVIES: The week's broadcast and cable movies are listed alphabetically at the front of the book. Pay Per View movies are listed on a separate page.

► QUESTIONS OR COMMENTS: Call us by using CityLine, (415) 512-5000. Enter category 2100.

For information about VCR-Plus numbers, call 1-800-732-1VCR.

A Classic Tale of Growing Up

BY COLLEEN HARTRY

An American family classic, "The Yearling," Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings' Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, adapted for TV by screenwriter Joe Wiesenfeld and directed by Rod Hardy, premieres Sunday, April 24 on CBS.

"The Yearling" has enchanted readers for generations, and was the subject of a memorable film version in 1946 that starred Gregory Peck, Jane Wyman and Claude Jarman, Jr., and won two Academy Awards.

This film stars Peter Strauss as Penny, Jean Smart as Ora and young Wil Horneff as Jody, members of the beleaguered Baxter family eking out a living in the harsh scrublands of inland Florida in the 1930s.

When Penny and Jody set off on a trek to visit their only neighbors, Penny is bitten by a rattlesnake and shoots a doe in order to use its liver to draw out the venom. Jody is able to convince his parents that if the deer gave its life for "Pa," then it is only right that her orphaned fawn be cared for by someone in the Baxter family. Thus, "Flag," so named for his "merry flag of a tail," becomes a Baxter.

The all-important role of Flag is played by six deer, according to Madeleine Klein, the specialist — called a "wrangler" — who trains and cares for animals in the movie.

"As we follow the deer as it grows up, we have pairs of deer at each age so they can each do what they're best at," she explains. "We have one that likes to nuzzle up to people, who's very outgoing, and another that's much quieter and shy. Whenever you see Flag lying on Jody's bed, that's the shy one and it's the outgoing one that follows Jody around.

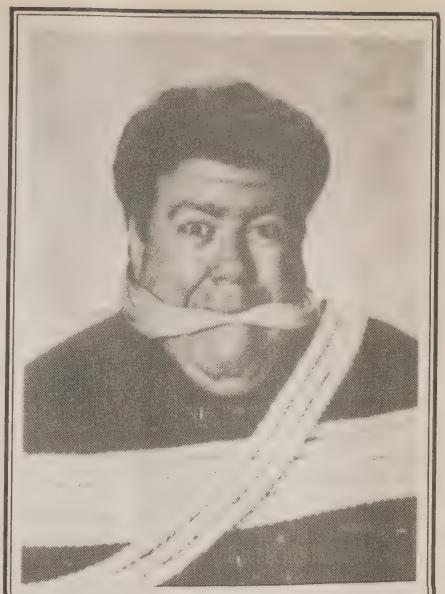
"Also, deer are prey and for that reason their instincts are to flee and try to disappear, so — even though camera magic says otherwise — deer and dogs were never present together in the same shot. The same goes for scenes of the bear and the dogs. Certain scenes can't be played by real animals at all — they would be too frightened. A mechanical bear is used in some close shots and a couple of shots actually combine a real bear, a man in a bear suit and a mechanical bear."

As for the human component, "This is a story about a good family," says screenwriter Wiesenfeld. "The parents understand and take seriously their responsibility toward their son; they work at it night and day. Rawlings shows a vivid picture of what a family is when it works — and that's what I hope comes through in this film."



George Wendt stars as Warren Kooey, a henpecked husband who takes himself "Hostage for a Day," Monday on Fox.

'Bedtime With Barney' and 'The Sound of Music'

BY EVAN LEVINE

Since he's just about everywhere else, it will surprise no one to learn that Barney, the ubiquitous purple dinosaur, is now making his network debut.

"Bedtime With Barney: Imagination Island" is part of NBC's "Family Night" on Sunday. The one-hour special takes Barney and viewers to a slumber party. From there, we travel through a closet that leads to a magic ship, an even more magical island, and a toy inventor named Professor Tinkerputt.

Barney creates a near-frenzy in some young children, leading to such comments as, "He's my best friend" (Jenny, age 3), and "I wish he was my baby sitter" (Susan, 4). Now, for an hour, he can be both.

Following "Barney" is a three-hour presentation of "The Sound of Music," the Academy Award-winning 1965 musical starring Christopher Plummer and Julie Andrews.

Tune in if you haven't seen it lately — or even if you have — it's almost impossible to hear the wonderful Rodgers and Hammerstein songs too many times.

As Julianne, 10, says, "It's a musical for everyone."

Barney stars on NBC Sunday at 7 p.m.

MOVIES

'The Sound of Music'

► NBC 8 p.m.

Julie Andrews soars in this musical movie classic based on the lives of the famous Von Trapp family. The movie garnered five Oscars, including one for the adaptation of the memorable Rodgers & Hammerstein score.

'The Yearling'

► CBS 9 p.m.

A made-for-television remake of the touching Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings' classic novel, this version stars Jean Smart as Ora ("Designing Women") a hardscrabble farmer in the scrublands of Florida. Peter Strauss plays Penny Baxter, her husband, who dotes on his only son, adolescent Jody (Wil Horneff). The boy is raised alone far from other children, so he channels all his attention on animals — especially a tiny fawn orphaned by Jody's rifle. Smart shines as the boy's mother who tries to give the boy the love he craves — hard for her since she's lost so many of her other children. Strauss also turns in a credible performance as the gruff, simple farmer who understands his troubled wife.

'Irma La Douce'

► TNT 10 p.m.

Shirley MacLaine and Jack Lemmon star in this comedy classic about a clever French prostitute (MacLaine) who is relentlessly pursued by a Parisian police officer (Lemmon) — who then becomes her "business" partner. The film was directed by the comedy great Billy Wilder with his typical slapstick flair. The composer Andre Previn won an Oscar for his scoring.

Monday

George Wendt stars in the comedy film 'Hostage for a Day' on FOX.

SPECIALS

'Educating Peter'

► HBO 7:15 p.m.

This powerful short film received an Oscar for its intimate look at a day-in-the-life of a 10-year-old boy, Peter — who just happens to have Down's syndrome. The sensitive docu-drama approach allows the young boy to demonstrate his own joy-filled outlook in his everyday encounters with "normal" people.

PRIME TIME

'Dave's World'

► CBS 7 p.m.

This comedy is based on the columnist Dave Barry's life and stars Harry Anderson ("Night Court") as the irreverent Barry. In this installment, Dave jeopardizes his relationship with his son when he uses the boy's secrets in his next column.

'Northern Exposure'

► CBS 9 p.m.

In this episode, Maurice Minnifield (Corbin) is stalked by a musician because of his recent investment — an extremely rare and expensive violin. Meanwhile, Maggie O'Connell (Janine Turner) develops a strange allergy to her own home.

MOVIES

'Hostage for a Day'

► FOX 8 p.m.

In this made-for-television comedy film, George Wendt stars as Warren Kooey, a henpecked husband who will do anything to escape his neurotic wife (Robin Duke) — including staging his own kidnapping. John Vernon co-stars as the overbearing father-in-law who makes Kooey's life unbearable. Christopher Templeton portrays Diane, the old girlfriend Kooey leaves them all for. This film marked the late John Candy's first and only directorial effort.

'Getting Out'

► ABC 9 p.m.

Based on a play by Pulitzer Prize winner Marsha Norman, this is the story of Arlene Holsclaw (Rebecca De Mornay), a young ex-con. Holsclaw, a Georgia woman, is rehabilitated and released from prison after serving time for theft and murder — but what she wants most in the world is a reunion with the son she bore while in prison. When she tries to retrieve the boy, she discovers that he is now out of her reach — mainly because of her mother's (Ellen Burstyn). machinations while Holsclaw was still in jail. Though she tries to better herself, the young woman continues to run into several obstacles: her past in prison, her lack of funds and an ex-con boyfriend who wants her to return to prostitution. De Mornay succeeds in capturing all facets of the woman's persona while Burstyn offers an arresting portrayal of an abusive parent caught in her own vicious cycle.

Pam Dawber and Powers Booth star in the psychological thriller 'Web of Deception.'

'Web of Deception'

► NBC 9 p.m.

A forensic psychiatrist (Powers Booth) finds himself the object of an obsessed woman's (Pam Dawber) desires in this made-for-television thriller. Unfortunately, when the psychiatrist tries to reject the woman's advances, he finds himself drawn into even more dangerous circumstances.

Harry Anderson stars as Dave Barry (both pictured) in the hit comedy series 'Dave's World.'

John F. Kennedy is featured in A&E's 'Biography' on Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis.

SPECIALS

'Kids Killing Kids'

► CBS 7 p.m.

► FOX 8 p.m.

The two networks CBS and FOX have both agreed to air the commercial-free special which depicts the results of violent gun use by kids. Hosted by Malcolm-Jamal Warner, this program features four separate stories which dramatize the tragic consequences of teenagers using guns to solve their own problems. In one segment, a young man carries a gun to school to impress his friends. In another, a boy tries to protect his younger brother from the neighborhood gang, while, in an even sadder vein, a depressed teenager finds a tragic use for an available gun. The special was produced by Oscar winner Arnold Shapiro.

'Biography: Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis'

► A&E 9 p.m.

The private world of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis is explored with intimate looks at her life as first lady, widow, and, then, as a living legend.

'Frontline: The Other Mandela'

► PBS 10 p.m.

Winnie Mandela, the estranged wife of South Africa's possible next president, Nelson Mandela, is the focus of this look at her recent activities. The woman, whom millions of South Africans still call "Mam we Sizwe" or "Mother of the Nation," has staged a remarkable comeback — and this program attempts to analyze this apparent rise from oblivion to the front ranks of South African politics. Once denounced by the African National Congress for her behavior and then finally abandoned by her husband, Nelson, Winnie has managed to engineer her own political resurrection — keeping the presence of the "other Mandela" still very much alive.

PRIME TIME

'The Dreamer of Oz: The L. Frank Baum Story'

► NBC 8 p.m.

This film provides a fascinating look at the life of L. Frank Baum (John Ritter) the imaginative creator of "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz." Featured are fantasy film clips in which the famous Baum character, Dorothy, is brought to life — along with her friends on the Yellow Brick Road. The film co-stars Rue McClanahan ("Golden Girls"), Annette O'Toole, and Charles Haid.

John Ritter stars in the movie 'The Dreamer of Oz.'

'Roseanne'

► ABC 9 p.m.

John Goodman and Roseanne Arnold star in the comedy hit series about working-class life in the suburbs. In this episode, Dan (John Goodman) tries to reunite his daughter Becky (Sarah Chalke) with Mark (Glenn Quinn). Meanwhile, a furious Roseanne hits the road to Chicago when she discovers that David (Johnny Galecki) is living with Darlene (Sara Gilbert).

Joan Lunden hosts the ABC special 'Behind Closed Doors.'

SPECIALS

'Growing Up Funny'

► LIFE 7 p.m.

Brett Butler ("Grace Under Fire") hosts this comedy special featuring Lily Tomlin, Marlo Thomas, Jasmine Guy and Raven-Symone in a light-hearted look at growing up with a sense of humor. In association with the Ms. Foundation's second annual "Take Our Daughters to Work Day," this program deals with topics such as self-esteem, physical appearance and career choices — and how to keep smiling through it all.

'Behind Closed Doors'

► ABC 8 p.m.

Joan Lunden ("Good Morning America") hosts the special which focuses on the private lives of celebrities. Among those showcased are basketball superstar Shaquille O'Neal on the road — and actor Mel Gibson on the set of the new film "Maverick." Another segment deals with a first-time look behind the doors of the Betty Ford Center. Lunden gets the chance to interview clinic alumnus Gregory Harrison — who admits he snorted cocaine in the parking lot just before being admitted to the Center. Also studied is the new phenomenon of women in combat and Lunden interviews Lt. Shannon Workman, who will become America's first female fighter pilot.

'Great Performances: Pavarotti and the Italian Tenor'

► PBS 10 p.m.

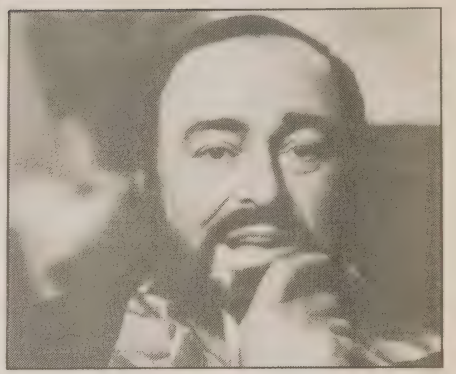
This program follows the great Italian tenor Pavarotti back to his hometown of Modena, Italy, where he celebrates the music — and lives — of four famous Italian tenors. He is assisted by his father, his early teachers and the members of his community as he explores the heritage and traditions of the Italian opera that made him famous.



Pavarotti sings on PBS' 'Great Performances: Pavarotti and the Italian Tenor.'

MOVIES

'Sundance Night'

► MAX 8 p.m.

Every year, Cinemax attends the Sundance Film Festival with an eye towards presenting the newest independent films. This year's selections will be aired the entire evening, starting with the debut of the 1993 winner of the Audience Award "El Mariachi." The film deals with a traveling mariachi musician who's mistaken for a vicious assassin. The next film, which airs at 9:30 p.m., is the poignant "Zebrahead" which stars Michael Rapaport and N'Bushe Wright. The story deals with racial strife in Detroit and the relationship between a white teen and his African-American girlfriend. The third selection, "Poison Ivy," (air time 11:15 p.m.) stars Drew Barrymore as a sadistic Lolita and Sara Gilbert as her naive schoolmate — and at 12:45 a.m., "Twenty-One" the film about a young Brit who moves to New York City to start a new life.

SPECIALS

'Mystery! Prime Suspect 3'

► PBS 9 p.m.

Helen Mirren reprises her hard-hitting role as Jane Tennison, the first woman detective chief inspector of the London Police Department. This installment finds Tennison moving to the Vice Division in London's notorious SoHo district. Her first case involves the death of a 17-year-old "rent boy" in the apartment of a transsexual cabaret singer (Peter Capaldi). But the investigation is marred by a leak on the force — so Tennison starts her search again, through a world of homeless, abused and drug-abusing children. Her trail leads her to a child prostitution ringleader (David Thewlis) and his elite clientele. Two more boys die and one of Tennison's team is exposed to AIDS. The script, written by "Prime Suspect" creator Lynda La Plante, offers the usual realistic — if brutal — depictions of life on the street.

'Swan Lake'

► A&E 10 p.m.

Tchaikovsky's ballet classic is performed by the London Festival Ballet with Evelyn Hart and Peter Schaufuss. The ballet is choreographed by Natalia Makarova.

'The Simpsons'

► FOX 8 p.m.

The animated comedy series celebrates its 100th episode — with Bart, Marge and Homer still in full force. This episode finds Bart Simpson as the victor in his long-standing battle with Springfield Elementary School principal, Seymour Skinner. Bart plays a prank that results in Skinner's dismissal — but he soon misses the challenge of a worthy adversary. Bart then decides to help Skinner get his job back. (Following will be the airing of the series' first episode which launched the national "Simpson" frenzy.)

'Wings'

► NBC 8:30 p.m.

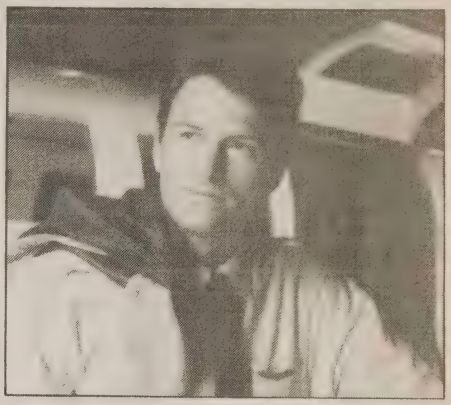
Tim Daly stars as a pilot in the comedy series about an airstrip on Nantucket Island off Massachusetts. In this episode, Helen's (Crystal Bernard) cancelled date has a change of heart — but when he rushes back to Nantucket to make amends, he finds Helen in the arms of another man. The series also co-stars Steven Weber as Daly's pilot brother and David Schramm as Roy Biggins, the owner of a rival airfield.



The comedy series 'Wings' stars Tim Daly as a pilot.

MOVIES

'The Shootist'

► USA 9 p.m.

This 1976 Western classic stars John Wayne as a dying gunslinger whose past continues to haunt him — and which ultimately ends up being the cause of his own demise. The unintended irony of this film is that while the gunslinger discovers that he has terminal cancer, Wayne, the actor, eventually fought a similar battle. Nonetheless, Wayne offers up one of the strongest performances of his extensive career with the help of a solid supporting cast: James Stewart, Lauren Bacall, Ron Howard and Richard Boone.

John Wayne and James Stewart star in the movie classic 'The Shootist.'

MOVIES

'Midnight Lace'

► AMC 6 p.m.

Doris Day is a standout in this movie mystery classic about an American living in London with her successful husband (Rex Harrison). She soon finds out that all is not as it seems — and she finds herself in grave danger. The film's cast also includes Mary Crosby (in her first screen role), Gary Frank, Celeste Holm and Susan Tyrrell. The story is based on Janet Green's novel "Mathilda Shouted Fire."

'A Few Good Men'

Tom Cruise and Jack Nicholson star in this riveting look at the military justice system. Cruise portrays a young hotshot Navy lawyer who is driven to investigate the murder of a young Marine by two fellow soldiers. He runs headlong into the base commander (Nicholson) who has personal reasons to keep the true story under wraps. Nicholson was nominated for an Oscar for his role as the prickly commander who stops at nothing to foil the Navy lawyer's case. Demi Moore makes a fine appearance as Cruise's legal partner and Kiefer Sutherland effectively portrays an overly dedicated marine.

Fyvush Finkel stars as attorney Douglas Wambaugh in the series 'Picket Fences.'
